

FTC Cyber Security Corporate Statement

FTC, together with its affiliates, utilizes breakthrough intrusion detection services that are periodically tested to protect the personal information of its customers. Further, FTC continuously monitors all Internet/network traffic and investigates any possible cyber security threats or attempted firewall breaches as it relates to the FTC corporate network and said customer information.